NEWS OF THE DAY

THE SENATE left the duty on books at present, 15 per cent. ad valorem. The duty on bituminous coal was fixed at seventy-five cents per ton; on matches thirty-five per cent.; on garden seed twenty per cent.

General Hazen has asked for an investigation of the charges made by Congressmen Belmont and Hoar against the conduct of the Signal Bureau.

The Massachusetts Senate have by vote expressed themselves in favor of biennial elections and sessions of the Legislature.

The late Gov. Edwin Dutton Morgan of New York, was born in the town of Washington, Berkshire County, Mass., on February 8, 1811. In 1822, he was elected to the New York State Assembly.

His father, Jasper Morgan, removed with his family to Windsor, Ct. He became a successful business man in New York City, and then went into politics.

He was a Whig, and after filling several minor offices, was elected Governor of the Empire State. He represented his State in the United States Senate and was nominated Secretary of the Treasury but declined. He was worth about $10,000,000.

The New Jersey State Senate passed bills appropriating money to reseed the oyster beds of the State, and prohibiting children from working in factories.

There is a better feeling growing up in Pennsylvania between miners and mine operators, which speaks well for the arbitration of all differences in the future.

A cable from Venice announces that Richard Wagner, the German composer, died in that city on Tuesday afternoon. He was born in Leipzig on the 22d of May, 1813.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania are considering a bill legalizing dissection and for providing medical institutions with the needed subjects for the knife. A bill has also been introduced allowing vendors of the necessities of life, newspapers and barbers to carry on their business on Sundays.

The Dry Dock Department of New York City is a defaulter to the city in a large amount. One item missing is over $85,000. The clerks did it.

The State Senate has passed the prohibitory amendment to the constitution of Maine.

On Sunday night at No. 10 Spruce street, New York, occupied by Sprague and printing company, did damage to the amount of $75,000.

The members of the Oklahoma party of invaders in Indian Territory made prisoners are settling in other portions of the country.

The difficulty between the factions of the Creek Nation existing since the rebellion, it is reported, has been settled without bloodshed.

A report of the pig iron makers for 1882 shows a larger and more extended business than they ever enjoyed before—thus contradicting the reports of dull trade which are given by individual manufacturers.

The salt deposit in the Genesee Valley is so rich that it will be mined in blocks.

The citizens' corps of Temosachi, Mexico, in three battles with Apache Indians killed 116 and captured 98, with a large number of horses and supplies, losing six of their own number killed.

A large number of rubber manufacturers closed their doors for an indefinite period, the object being to "freeze out" those which seek control of the business.

Before the New York State Assembly Committee on State Prisons several witnesses testified that the contract system was injurious to honest and industrious tradesmen.

A planing mill, a valuable stock of lumber and a stable at Red Bank, N. J., were destroyed by fire, on Saturday, involving a loss of $50,000. The fire was started by incendiaries.

A bank messenger was robbed while getting in the street cars in New York City, of $11,000. As the amount was in papers and bonds, the thief could not use, they returned it to the bank.

Fire at Rondout, N. Y., communicated to the steamboat City of Catskill, which was burned to the water's edge. An ironhouse, containing 2,000 tons of iron, was also consumed.

The Commissioner of Juries of New York City has discovered a swindle in his office. A large number of jurors have been exposed from doing jury duty on payment of $10 to $15 each to a certain ring. The city has been defrauded of a large amount. The clerks and their lawyer have been arrested.

At Fall River, Mass., a meeting of French Canadian citizens denounced the charges recently made before the United States Labor Committee, against the French Canadian laborers of New England, as vile slanders.

The Mutual Union Telegraph Company has gone the way of many of its predecessors who have set themselves up to rival the Western Union monopoly, and been absorbed by the latter. The Mutual was organized in 1880 with a capital stock of $600,000. Its earnings last year were $1,450,000.

Marshall Jewell, ex-Governor of Connecticut, ex-United States Minister to Russia and ex-Postmaster General, died in Hartford, Conn., on Saturday of pneumonia. When a boy Gov. Jewell worked at the tanning business with his father but turned his attention to politics at an early age and became a prominent man in the Republican party. Mr. Jewell had a handsome face and a dignified manner, and was always courteous.
